

NPSTI20- EROSION & SEDIMENT CONTROL PRACTICES

Online Course For Certified Underground Tank Installers

Approved for 2 Credit Hours for Certified Underground Storage Tank
Installers by the Board of Underground Storage Tank Installers
January 2021

This course meets the DEP Erosion and Sedimentation Control training requirement in Chapter 691: Rules for Underground Oil Storage Facilities.

Name: _____ Tel. _____

Company: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City/Town: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

E-mail Address: _____

Maine DEP's Nonpoint Source Training Center and the Board of Underground Storage Tank Installers (BUSTI) are pleased to offer this training free of charge to Certified Underground Storage Tank Installers. Applicants also seeking credit toward DEP Erosion Control Certification requirements should contact John MacLaine at John.MacLaine@maine.gov or (207) 615-3279 for more information, fees will apply for Erosion Control Certification credit.

Complete each module by clicking on the link in the table below—each course takes about an hour. This course will require an email address to complete. Upon successful completion of each module, you will receive an emailed certificate with a unique ID number. When prompted for your DEP Certification Number in each module, enter "BUSTI"

All 4 modules below must be completed prior to submission to receive 2 Credit Hours.
Click on each module title below to begin the module.

Module #	Module Title	Enter Certificate ID #	Complete?
NPS2152	Why Controlling Erosion is Important
NPS2154	Erosion Controls for Construction Sites
NPS2155	Sediment Controls and Site Considerations
NPS2157	Erosion Control Planning and Good Housekeeping

How to apply credits from BUSTI:

Once all 4 modules have been completed, submit this form (with all module Certificate ID numbers entered) or all 4 certificates to:

Theresa Scott
Board of Underground Storage Tank Installers (BUSTI)
Theresa.J.Scott@maine.gov
(207) 287-7169